

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: Feb. 19, 2013

CONTACT: Paula Stroup, Librarian Assistant 623-930-3757

GO ON A “BLIND DATE WITH A BOOK”

Glendale, Ariz. — Many people have experienced both good and bad blind dates, so imagine a date that reads like a book. It could be romantic, adventurous or funny. The Glendale Main Library’s “Blind Date with a Book” could be one of the best dates you have ever had.

Currently the Glendale Main Library, 5959 W. Brown St., is challenging patrons to take home a book from the “Blind Date with a Book” display. The display is full of great reads for all ages with one catch: Each book is completely covered in plain paper and includes a personal ad describing the book’s attributes.

The library’s goal for this project is to inspire patrons to try something other than their typical book selections. The display will continue through March 15.

For more information about the library and upcoming events, visit www.glendaleaz.com/library.

###